ALL DAY Workshops

100. Non-Violent Crisis Intervention Training (Flex format) (all day)

Flex format - learners begin by accessing an online component that should take them 2 hours. They will need to do this before Feb 12, so the link will be provided ahead of time. Our virtual classroom training will run from 9:00 - 2:30 on Feb 12 via Zoom or Teams (link to be shared later).

Facilitators: Paul & Lisa, are experienced NVCi instructors with a clear understanding of how these skills can be best translated to the school environment.

This training is for people who have not previously been certified in CPI Nonviolent Crisis Intervention. It is also appropriate for people who have taken the course and need to renew their certification.

The course includes online learning followed by real-time virtual classroom training. The course focusses on prevention and de-escalation skills, but also demonstrates methods for ensuring physical safety. No physical practice will occur.

Target Audience: All Staff

101. Taking Action for Climate Justice (all day)

Facilitators: Callista Vagt & Donna Morgan, BCTF

This workshop will provide participants with an increased understanding of the urgency to take action on global warming. Participants will leave the workshop with a bank of lessons and resources to teach about climate justice along with the skills needed to address controversial issues in the classroom. The workshop provides strategies for teachers to support existing BCTF policies related to climate action by supporting students in advocating for climate justice in their communities and at the provincial and national level.

Target Audience: All

102. Literacy, Social Emotional Learning (SEL) and the Core Competencies (all day)

Facilitator: Lisa Thomas, is the Program Manager and a Teacher Consultant for the Provincial Outreach Program for the Early Years (POPEY), and has been with POPEY since its inception in 2014. She has 20 years of experience as a classroom teacher and teacher consultant in BC. In her role with POPEY, Lisa supports K-3 educators with workshops, resources that support best practice in literacy instruction. She's passionate about literacy, teacher collaboration, and supporting all students to be happy, confident learners.

This interactive and engaging online session will focus on how we can design literacy experiences that support students' sense of well-being and belonging, as well as their ability to explore, communicate, participate, and make meaning within safe and inclusive primary classrooms.

Together we will explore how to meaningfully infuse social emotional learning and the Core Competencies into a comprehensive literacy program, including literacy activities, stories, and texts that intentionally connect to opportunities for social emotional learning and to the Core Competencies.

Target Audience: Primary

103. CBIEP - I am learning to write a strength based IEP by attending this Workshop (all day) "Parents Welcome"

Facilitators: Sheri Montgomery and Amanda Brien, are both teachers in the district and have been using the CBIEP to support student learning with the redesigned curriculum.

Why a new IEP? Discovering and exploring the Competency Based IEP. Connecting the IEP to the Core and Curricular Competencies. Learn how to write a Competency Based IEP. Learn the timeline for implementation.

Target Audience: All Teachers

Early Bird Door Prize Draws-1 prize to participants registered by Dec.17/20 and 1 for Jan. 7/21

104. Dialectical Behaviour Therapy in Schools (all day) “Parents Welcome”

Facilitators: Shanda Collins & Karen Loewen, are clinicians with Mission Child and Youth Mental Health.

DBT in schools is a universal social emotional learning (SEL) curriculum designed for middle and high school students in an educational setting.

Target Audience: All

and the barriers he faced growing up in a remote northern Saskatchewan First Nation.

Dwight began this journey in January 2020, to raise awareness and bring a voice to this invisible segment of Canadian society.

He has also been sharing inspiration and encouraging the youth living in remote First Nations as well as those living in urban settings to create a vision for themselves through a personalized and impactful presentation specifically designed for these youth.

Target Audience: All

First Session Workshops

200. The Ballantyne Project: Life on a Remote First Nation (am)

“Parents Welcome”

Facilitator: Dwight Ballantyne

The Ballantyne Project was founded in April 2019 by Dwight Ballantyne who had a desire to bring awareness to a segment of the Canadian population that rarely makes it into textbooks, popular media or social conversation: youth and young adults living in remote Indigenous communities.

Dwight Ballantyne spent his first 21 years growing up in Montreal Lake Cree Nation, a remote northern Saskatchewan community. Like thousands of other youth living in these communities he experienced limited employment, isolation, social inequity and unique challenges not experienced by those living in other areas of our vast nation.

In February 2016 he had a chance to move to BC as part of a program for Indigenous youth from remote First Nations. Since then his accomplishments have included receiving the Premier’s Award for Indigenous Youth Excellence in Sport in November 2018 for creating and directing a Hockey Skills & Leadership Program as well as representing Team Canada at an International Hockey Tournament in March 2019. Dwight’s desire is to bridge the gap between individuals living in remote Indigenous communities and the rest of Canada.

Through interactive and educational presentations to middle and high school students in urban settings, Dwight Ballantyne has been sharing his experiences

Target Audience: Teachers

206. Staying Well at Teaching

Facilitators: Darren Companion & Wendy Cook, BCTF

Teaching is complex. High public expectations, class composition, educational cutbacks, and increased accountability affect schools, teachers, and students. BCTF surveys identify increased workload and stress as significant concerns for teachers. This workshop helps teachers stay well. Setting boundaries around workload, self-care and smart choices, and de-stressing are key themes. All focus on building shared solutions to both the demands of the work and the isolation of teaching. Participants will reconnect with colleagues, laugh, and tell stories as they assess their work-life balance and explore staying well and creating a healthy workplace. Skilled teacher facilitators will design the session to suit the needs of each school staff. Retreat locations away from the school are recommended, where possible.

Target Audience: All

207. Retirement Planning (am)
“Parents Welcome”

Facilitator: Grant Strachan, is a Senior Financial Consultant and Division Director with IG Wealth Management. His goal is to empower people to achieve their dreams and build wealth through a comprehensive approach to financial Planning while providing them with a world-class experience. Grant works primarily with incorporated professionals, business owners and affluent Canadians to develop comprehensive financial plans using state of the art predictive software that seeks to mitigate taxes and uncover opportunities to ensure his clients achieve their goals and dreams.

Target Audience: All

208. Identifying and Supporting Girls with Autism Spectrum Disorder in the School System(am)
“Parents Welcome”

Facilitator: Dr. Rashmeen Nirmal, is a Registered Psychologist and Clinical Instructor in the Department of Pediatrics at UBC. She provides diagnostic assessment for children and teens in the BC Autism Assessment Network at Sunnyhill Health Centre for Children and in private practice. She has previously worked in the school system including the Provincial Outreach Program for Autism and related Disorder (POPARD). Dr. Nirmal has presented on a variety of topics related to ASD both nationally and internationally. She is passionate about supporting students in their social development and in their transition from teen years to adulthood.

Females with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) may present differently than males with ASD in their symptom presentation and in their ability to make or camouflage symptoms. Consequently, girls with ASD may go unnoticed in the school system resulting in possible delays in assessment, diagnosis, and access to meaningful supports and services. The focus of this talk is to review the female presentation of ASD, how to “spot” girls with autism in schools, and to provide recommendations for supports and resources.

Target Audience: All

209. Yoga and Mindfulness for Self Regulation (am) “Parents Welcome”

Facilitator: Jennine Abbot, is the Founder and Director of Harmony Kids Yoga and Mindfulness Company.
